

Required educational program for acquiring a RN degree

Theoretical Studies

1. Basic sciences

1A Social sciences and management

- Introduction to sociology
- Sociology of health
- Introduction to economics of health services
- Nursing management

1B Behavioral sciences

- Introduction to psychology
- Introduction to developmental psychology
- Introduction to social psychology

1C General studies

- Introduction to statistics and methodological research

1D Health sciences

- Chemistry & biochemistry
- Anatomy & physiology
- Physical assessment
- Nutrition and dietetics
- Microbiology+ immunology
- Pharmacology+medical arithmetics
- Genetics+ embryology
- Pathology
- Introduction to epidemiology

2. Nursing studies

- Basics and issues in nursing
- Critical reading and college writing
- Law in nursing
- Quality assurance and risk management

3. Clinical nursing

- Medical and surgical nursing

- Geriatric nursing
- Obstetric and gynecologic nursing
- Pediatric nursing
- Adolescence nursing
- Community health nursing
- Psychiatric nursing (includes a study unit in drugs and alcohol)
- First aid and trauma

4. Special program

Halachic aspects of health and sickness-unique program

Clinical experience

- Medical surgical nursing
- Pediatric nursing and neonatal nursing
- Obstetric and gynecologic nursing
- Community health nursing
- Psychiatric nursing
- Trauma nursing